STANDARD: Written policy, procedure and practice establish the Community Supervision Agency's commitment to informing the public and the media of events within the agency's areas of responsibility. The procedures address emergency and non-emergency responses to the media and, at a minimum, include the following:

- Identification of areas in the Community Supervision Agency that are accessible to media representatives
- The contact person for routine requests for information
- Identification of data and information protected by federal or state privacy laws, or federal and state freedom of information laws
- Special events coverage
- News release policy
- The designation of individuals or positions within the agency authorized to speak with the media on behalf of the agency

DISCUSSION: None.

NOTE: The standards and procedures set forth herein are intended to establish operational guidelines for community supervision agencies and their employees/contractors and juveniles under supervision. They are not intended to establish state created liberty interests for community supervision agencies or their employees/contractors, or supervised juveniles, or an independent duty owed by the Juvenile Justice Authority to community supervision agencies, or their employees/contractors, supervised juveniles or third parties. This standard and procedure is not intended to establish or create new constitutional rights or to enlarge or expand upon existing constitutional rights or duties.
